DAY 2: Free day in Ilha Grande

Your day is free to explore the island of Ilha Grande. There are more than one hundred beaches to kick back and relax at, or alternatively you can explore the main township of Vila do Abraão. Of all the beaches, Lopes Mendes Beach is the most popular thanks to its fine white sand. To reach the beach, you can either take a water taxi or choose to take a four to five hour hike. Once there, you can wander the 3km beach or enjoy the surf. If you choose to stay in Vila do Abraão, there are plenty of great restaurants and bars and the town's own beach to relax at.

DAY 3: Ilha Grande to Paraty

Today you will travel back to the mainland to the town of Paraty. Located on the Bay of Ilha Grande, Paraty is a beautiful coastal town that's set against a steep mountain backdrop. The town developed thanks to the Brazilian Goldrush as people travelled through the port on their travels between Rio de Janeiro and Minas Gerais Goldfields. There are more than sixty five islands and three hundred beaches within close proximity to Paraty and the colonial town centre hosts 17th and 18th century buildings and churches. You are free to explore after your arrival.

DAY 4: Jeep Tour of Serra Bocaina National Park

Departing mid-morning, you will travel by jeep to the tranquil Serra Bocaina National Park. Once there, you will take a walk through the rainforest to the Pedra Branca, Togoga and Tarzan waterfalls. You will have time to enjoy a swim at each of these waterfalls. From the national park you'll head to an 18th century cachaca distillery to taste firewater and see how it's produced. You'll then head to a restaurant for lunch and stop at a bakery to taste some local Brazilian cakes and desserts.
