Andrew Denton & Jennifer Byrne

Returning for the third time with Chimu to Antarctica are our very special guests, Andrew Denton and Jennifer Byrne. They are also passionate fans of Antarctica, travelling there many times over the years. Experienced and award-winning TV presenters, Byrne and Denton both possess a unique capacity to connect with an audience. Their onboard presentations are sure to be a highlight on what will already be an incredible journey.

In the words of Andrew Denton: "If Antarctica were music it would be Mozart. Art, and it would be Michelangelo. Literature, and it would be Shakespeare. And yet it is something even greater; the only place on earth that is still as it should be. May we never tame it."

Paul Kelly

Paul Kelly has been renowned for his unique capacity to tell stories from many points of view and his songs are now lodged deep in the Australian psyche.

On this voyage, 'Songs in the South', Kelly will perform three times onboard the ship, shining a light on the incredible scenery and unique wildlife of the world's last frontier, Antarctica. A place where the fragility of our planet is never more present, an area steeped in history, a location with its own unique stories, a destination that changes people.

'Songs in the South' is a journey of a lifetime, and one not to be missed, possibly his most unique gig ever.

PHOTOGRAPHY PROGRAM

Take home the best memories you can by capturing and developing incredible images with our Antarctica Photography Program.

This optional activity is perfect if you are passionate about photography, or just passionate about capturing the beautiful landscape and wildlife you will encounter on your incredible Antarctic adventure.

Photography Zodiac Excursion

Photography Workshop participants will have dedicated Zodiac and photography guided landings.

Your Polar Photography Guide will accompany you and give you tips and tricks along the way for taking that perfect picture.

Photography Workshop participants will have access to the Ocean Endeavour's forward facing Zodiacs, which offer stability for photography as well as unobstructed views.

Photography Lectures

Learn about composition, camera settings, exposure & lighting, wildlife photography tips, and landscape imaging.

Editing Workshop

Your Polar Photography Guide will teach you how to use your editing software and guide you along the way to make your beautiful images even more stunning.

SUSTAINABILITY

We believe that with great travel, comes great responsibility. As a travel company, we know it is our responsibility to sustain and protect the environment we use and love. Which is why we have taken a range of sustainability measures to ensure our expeditions have as little impact as possible while providing our travellers with unique and authentic experiences.

- No use of plastic straws aboard our vessel and working towards eliminating all single use plastics throughout our entire operation
- Each guest receive a reusable water bottle to use at our water refill station onboard
- Only sustainably sourced seafood served
- Our guests can use the Soap/Shampoo dispensers in all bathrooms
- We use Eco – friendly cleaning products aboard
- Carrying all waste with us out of Antarctica
- Using sustainable suppliers wherever possible
- We are a founding sponsor of the Antarctic Science Foundation that directly support Australian science programs
- Working with SeaGreen on recycling initiatives and waste minimisation

OUR TRIPS ARE

What is carbon offsetting?

Carbon offsets are a way to balance out greenhouse gas emissions by allocating funds to emission reduction programs. We quantify our carbon usage, and then purchase carbon credits from various projects to offset our impact.
