Las Hayas Ushuaia Resort

Surrounded by a captive and centennial forest of Ñires, Lenga beech, sour cherry trees and Southern beeches, with a view to the majestic peaks of Los Andes Mountain Range and the deep magnetic blue of the Beagle Channel, you find Las Hayas Ushuaia Resort, a haven of peace in the remote corners of the Earth.

The resort is located inside a Natural Reserve in the mountain, on an area of 5 hectares of Fueguian Forest. Located 2.5 km from Ushuaia town centre it offers a shuttle bus from the hotel to Ushuaia at regular intervals throughout the day, complimentary for hotel guests.

We highly recommend arriving into Ushuaia at least the day prior to embarkation in case of any flight delays. Book our pre-cruise package and stay with your fellow Discover Antarctica travellers and be on location for our pre-voyage briefing held at the Las Hayas Ushuaia Resort on the evening prior to embarkation. Please note if you make your own arrangements in Ushuaia you will need to make your own way to Las Hayas Ushuaia Resort for this briefing as well as to the port on embarkation day.
