DAY 5: Explore the Argentinian Iguazu Falls

EXPLORE THE ARGENTINEAN IGUAZU FALLS. Iguazu Falls, the largest waterfalls system in the world, are truly awe-inspiring to behold, spanning the border between Brazil and Argentina. Though Brazil boasts better views of the falls, Argentina is blessed with about 80 percent of this natural marvel’s 275 separate cascades. Paved trails and catwalks wind their way around the falls—sometimes reaching within an arm’s length of the water—and a free train connects the main trailheads. We like to start the tour early in order to try and beat the crowds and get the first train to the Devil’s Throat. There are walkways over the islands which take you to a balcony over the falls and the most spectacular view of the entire Devil’s Gorge. You will then have plenty of time to walk the 800 metres of paths on the upper circuit. These new suspended walkways are detached from the jungle surface so as to protect the fauna by preventing disruption of the natural trails. From this circuit you have a higher sight of the falls, providing you with a magnificent panoramic view. It takes around 1 hour to cover the upper circuit. The lower circuit contains 600 metres of walkways, also detached from the jungle floor, and has great views from below and around the falls. If you have booked - or would like to book locally - the boat trip under the falls, the guide will take you to the boarding point. Once you have finished all the circuits, you go back to the visitor centre where the vehicle will be waiting for you. Meals included: Breakfast

DAY 6: Brazilian Falls & on to Rio de Janeiro

BRAZILIAN FALLS & ON TO RIO DE JANEIRO

Today we explore the Brazilian side of the Falls. Iguazu Falls (Cataratas do Iguazu), the largest waterfalls system in the world, are truly awe-inspiring to behold. Though Argentina boasts longer trails around the falls, Brazil is blessed with the best views of this natural marvel's 275 separate cascades, which span the border between the two countries. Take in full-frontal views of Devil's Throat (Garganta del Diablo), San Martin Island, and more from the short-but-sweet catwalks that wind their way around the Brazilian side of Iguazu Falls. Though less forested and natural than the Argentinean trails, you'll find significantly better panoramic views of Iguazu Falls in all its unforgettable glory—and they even offer an elevator to a postcard-perfect viewpoint over Devil's Throat, considered the most spectacular scene in the park. After the tour, there will be time to visit the nearby Bird Park. The Bird Park (Parque das Aves) is an Integrated Conservation Center for Birds of the Atlantic Forest and the second most visited attraction in Foz do Iguazu, where visitors can have close contact with Atlantic Forest birds in immersion ponds during a walk that connects the contact with nature and knowledge. Located near the Iguazu National Park, where the Iguazu Falls lie, the Bird Park is one of the largest bird parks in Latin America, whose main job is the conservation of the 120 species of birds of the Atlantic Forest in some danger of extinction. Following this visit to the falls we will head to the airport for our onward flight to Rio De Janeiro. Meals included: Breakfast

DAY 8: Rio beyond the Beach

RIO BEYOND THE BEACH This morning we will visit a unique site in Rio, located inside one of its Favela communities. For 21 years, Project Morrinho has told a story of community, authenticity and respect. Started in 1998 by two brothers in the Pereira da Silva community, this cultural space beautifully articulates the geography in which it was formed. A collection of thousands of broken and painted bricks forms different streets and neighbourhoods, all at home to a diverse population of personalities. What began holistically as a manifestation of the right to play has turned into an artistic revolution. Today, Morrinho is a collective and cultural community space that unites creativity, tourism, education and activism. Our tour explores this work of cultural urban art and gives visitors a glimpse of the complexities and strong sense of community in the most overlooked elements of Brazilian society. The afternoon is free to enjoy Rio at your leisure. This evening we will enjoy a lovely farewell dinner at a typical Brazilian restaurant. Meals included: Breakfast, Dinner.

Along with Cusco and the ancient city of Machu Picchu, lies the Sacred Valley, (also known as the Urubamba River Valley) that formed the heart of the Inca Empire. We continue our journey in the footsteps of the past. The first stop is the village of Pisac, with its famous market. The colonial village of Pisac sits at the base of the spectacular Pisac Ruins - a hilltop Inca citadel and fortress with impressive agricultural terracing. On market days Pisac comes alive with colour as locals from nearby hillside villages in traditional dress come to sell local fruit, vegetables, textiles, and other handicrafts. We wander around the colourful market stalls before having buffet lunch at a local restaurant. Continue along the River Urubamba, to Ollantaytambo, a town dominated by a giant Inca fortress.
