

INTRODUCTION

Begin your journey in the charming Chilean town of Punta Arenas. Navigate the Strait of Magellan before crossing the legendary Drake Passage and be the first to witness the unveiling of Antarctica's pristine white wilderness and rose-coloured sunsets. This itinerary offers the budding photographer incredible experiences of untouched frozen landscapes, beautiful sculptured icebergs and unparalleled wildlife courtship displays. For the adventurer, under the guidance of an expert you can choose to strap on a pair of snowshoes and feel the spirit of early Antarctic explorers. Or kayak through a sea of brash ice, among majestic icebergs and experience nature close-up. Finish the day relaxing in the ships heated saltwater pool, sauna or hot tub or treat yourself to a pamper in our 5* wellness centre. Return to the scenic port of Ushuaia with a sense of fulfilment having experienced the journey of a lifetime.

ITINERARY

DAY 1: Arrival in Punta Arenas

Start your journey by exploring the charming streets and rugged coastline of Punta Arenas, Chile on the shores of the historic Strait of Magellan. Established on the wealth of the Patagonian wool export industry, the town's splendour has been continued by a shift in focus to facilitating Antarctic exploration and research. It's from the Punta Arenas post office that Sir Robert Falcon Scott penned his 400 letters announcing his return from the Antarctic and the town also hosted Sir Ernest Shackleton and his men for the closure of their harrowing Endurance expedition.

DAY 2: Embarkation in Punta Arenas

Today you will be transferred from your hotel to the port where you will board The Ocean Endeavour. You will begin by traversing the Strait of Magellan before turning south for the legendary Drake Passage.

DAY 3: Drake Passage - Day 3 to 4

At sea, the rare and gracious albatross and other sea birds will escort our vessel toward the frozen continent. While out on-board team of experts introduce you to the Antarctic through lectures and workshops, the Ocean Endeavour's spacious bridge provides a warm viewing station for spotting whales and other marine mammals. At night, the expedition team offer tales of their journeys in the south and we invite you to get to know your shipmates at the bar or in the lounge.

DAY 5: Antarctic Peninsula - Day 5 to 9

On the morning of the fifth day of our voyage, large icebergs and the shape of the volcanic South Shetland Islands can be seen from the Ocean Endeavour's bridge. We'll spend the day exploring this Antarctic archipelago - a string of islands that is frequented by chinstrap penguins, elephant seals and fur seals. The feeling of a true expedition will come to life as we take to the water in our fleet of zodiacs and make our first Antarctic excursion. Over the coming days, we'll voyage further south across the Bransfield strait and into the icy coves of continental Antarctic Peninsula. Sprawling gentoo penguin colonies will provide for a sensory immersion into the continent's ecology and the seals and whales that thrive in these waters will be a highlight of our first few landings and zodiac cruises. It's also here that the true extent of Antarctic glacial ice can be witnessed. Famous sites like Neko Harbour, Orne Harbour or Skontorp Cove will draw the captain's gaze as we seek the region's most stunning icy vistas for camping, snowshoeing and kayaking adventures. As well as sites rich in natural history, we will also endeavour to visit a working science base as well as seek out historic huts and landmarks that punctuate the white wilderness.

DAY 10: Drake Passage - Day 10 to 11

Following the incredible experience of exploring the Antarctic Peninsula, The Ocean Endeavour will head north for Cape Horn. During the hours sailing for South America, lectures and workshops in photo editing will make sure your photographic memories of the days past are polished and stored safely. And for the final evenings' programming, an Antarctic quiz will test your knowledge of all you've learned about the continent and its inhabitants, an Antarctic auction will give you the chance to give back to conservation and other efforts in the region and just before we arrive in Ushuaia, a voyage slideshow will recap all we've enjoyed along the way.

DAY 12: Disembarkation in Ushuaia

We are scheduled to arrive into Ushuaia early this morning, disembarking after a final breakfast aboard the Ocean Endeavour. Transfer to the airport for your onward flight, or maybe spend a few days in Ushuaia, giving you time to explore further, maybe hiking in Tierra del Fuego National park. Please Note: You are advised not to book a flight out of Ushuaia before midday on disembarkation day, in case of delays caused by unfavourable weather conditions. Cruise itinerary is subject to change depending on weather conditions, ice conditions and other factors.

SUSTAINABILITY

As a member of IAATO we follow guidelines appointed by the Antarctic Treaty System to go above and beyond in support of minimizing negative impacts on this pristine landscape. We also encourage clients to look to book pre-and post- accommodation with us, where local businesses will be supported. Our clients also receive restaurant recommendations which support locally owned restaurants

We carefully select all ships we work with and choose smaller sized vessels to create less impact. We use a highly regulated, licensed vessel which is well equipped to operate in the Antarctic’s delicate ecosystem. We view the voyage to the Antarctic as an expedition, not a sightseeing trip. Smaller boats such as ours can navigate narrow waterways and are far less polluting than the larger ships in Antarctic waters. By carrying less passengers, we have far less waste. The waste is carried back to the home port to allow for environmentally conscious waste management and disposal.
