

SOUTH GEORGIA - FALKLANDS & SOUTH GEORGIA | MAGELLAN EXPLORER

INTRODUCTION

Combine the Falkland Islands (Malvinas) and South Georgia with this 17-day expedition starting from Punta Arenas, Chile. In the Falklands and enjoy watching rockhopper and gentoo penguins in their native habitat. From your zodiac spot Black-browed albatrosses and petrels soaring high in the sky. Hike into the local settlements and meet the people who have called this island home for generations. From there, set sail for South Georgia, which are permanently covered in thick layers of ice and snow. On this island, wildlife is king. Visit one of the world's largest king penguin colonies and watch elephant seals relaxing near the shore. As we sail from bay to bay, watch out for whales and beautiful seabirds flying overhead.
