DAY 2: Rio Secreto Tour

Journey underground into the Rio Secreto Cenote within Secreto Reserve. You will hike through the forests of the Xibalba (Mayan Underworld) to reach one of fifteen entrances into a pristine, semi-sunken cave system. There, you will be treated to a sound and light show in the Salón de la Paz, or Room of Peace, before you can take the opportunity to don a wetsuit and explore the caves from within the water.

DAY 3: Free day in Cancun or visit Chichen Itza & Tulum

Today is a free day to explore Cancun. You can also embark on an optional visit to the nearby archaeological sites of Chichen Itza and Tulum. Cancun has a number of key zones to explore, including its hotel zone and downtown. The hotel zone features various themed parks, beach clubs, and a vibrant nightlife, while downtown offers everything from small stores to street food and Mexican wrestling. Cancun also has plenty of white sandy beaches, from the main beach Playa Delfines to Playa Maroma and Playa Tortugas, which are further afield. At Chichen Itza, you can experience seeing one of the new Seven Wonders of the World and Mexico's most famous and impressive Mayan ruins. Alternatively, the town of Tulum offers the opportunity to visit the well-preserved ruins of a Mayan port city.

DAY 4: Depart Cancun

You will be transferred to the airport to depart for your next destination.
