Starting at the Independence Square you will see the Palacio Salvo and the Puerta de la Ciudadela, the old gate and outer walls which guarded the citadel during ancient times. Explore the churches museums, libraries and theatres of Montevideo and learn about the Spanish and African roots of the annual 'carnaval' that takes place here. You will end your tour at the lively port market which is home to many traditional steakhouses where you can have lunch (not included) and enjoy some of the local wine that Uruguay is famous for.
