

THE ARCTIC - ICELAND CIRCUMNAVIGATION | SEA SPIRIT

INTRODUCTION

This expedition cruise circles Iceland, combining natural highlights like the country's volcanic landscapes & remote fjords with meaningful encounters in coastal communities. Explore key regions by scenic sailings on the ship, shore landings, and guided excursions to see waterfalls, lava fields, black sand beaches, geothermal areas, fjords and wildlife-rich habitats where you may spot puffins. Visits to small towns and fishing villages provide insight into Icelandic culture, from maritime history to local food traditions.

Throughout the journey, you will cross the Arctic Circle, observe seabird colonies, learn about recent volcanic events, geological history and relax in geothermal pools with stunning mountain views. The itinerary balances time in nature with curated cultural experiences, creating an accessible way to experience Iceland's dramatic scenery, culture, and everyday life in this evolving environment.

ITINERARY

DAY 1: Arrive Reykjavik

Our expedition begins in Reykjavík, a city that's both authentically Icelandic and effortlessly cosmopolitan. Explore its lively streets, visit Hallgrímskirkja, discover local museums and galleries, or join locals in a geothermal pool, the true social heart of the city.

DAY 2: Embarkation

Enjoy a leisurely morning beforeboarding the Sea Spirit in the afternoon. From this moment on, roads are no longer needed, and we begin our journey off the beaten path to discover Iceland's many wonders.

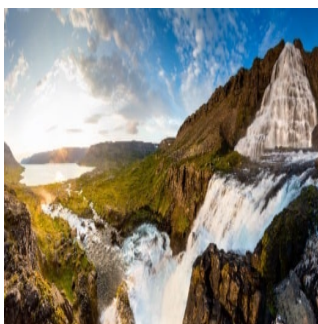

DAY 3: Snaefellness Peninsula

Often called "Iceland in Miniature," the Snæfellsnes Peninsula captures all the island's magic in one place —dramatic cliffs, black-sand beaches, lava fields, glaciers, and volcanic craters. We'll pass waterfalls and the famous Kirkjufell Mountain, known to Game of Thrones fans as the "Arrowhead Mountain," with every view revealing a touch of Iceland's mystical soul.

DAY 4: Dynjandi Waterfall

We explore Iceland's remote Westfjords, the island's oldest and most untouched region. A Zodiac landing brings us to Dynjandi—the "Thunderous" waterfall—a 100-meter cascade spilling over basalt steps like a giant wedding cake. Later, we visit Suðureyri, a charming fishing village where we can enjoy authentic local flavors.

DAY 5: Siglufjordur and Grimsey Island

Known as the "Herring Capital of the World" in its heyday, Siglufjörður is rich in maritime history and local character. We'll visit the award-winning Herring Era Museum, taste fresh herring with Brennivín, and stop by Frida's famous chocolate shop and the local brewery. This afternoon, we take Zodiacs north to Grímsey Island, which lies directly across the Arctic Circle. Here, steep cliffs teem with thousands of seabirds, emerald meadows stretch across the island, and a small 19th-century driftwood church stands as a unique Arctic landmark.

DAY 6: Akureyri

Surrounded by snowcapped peaks and the deep blue Eyjafjörður, Akureyri is the vibrant heart of the north. From here we head to the volcanic landscapes of Lake Mývatn—steaming vents, lava fields, and surreal scenery. We visit Goðafoss, the “Waterfall of the Gods,” and continue to Dettifoss, Europe’s most powerful waterfall, an unforgettable force of nature.

DAY 7: Seyðisfjörður

Sailing along Iceland’s rugged eastern coast, we arrive in Seyðisfjörður—a hidden gem nestled among waterfalls and misty mountains. Its colorful wooden houses, built by XIX-century Norwegian traders, line the peaceful harbor, their reflections shimmering in the still fjord waters. Later, we visit Lake Urriðavatn to soak in a geothermal pool with sweeping views of the lake and surrounding peaks. As warm thermal waters meet the crisp mountain air, you’ll feel a close connection with Iceland’s raw and untouched beauty.

DAY 8: Djúpivogur

We anchor near the peaceful fishing village of Djúpivogur, surrounded by rugged cliffs and calm fjords. A guided walk takes us along black-sand beaches and quiet lagoons, where puffins, Arctic terns, and other seabirds can be spotted. We explore small islands linked by natural sandbars, visit a traditional birdwatching hut, and enjoy the gentle rhythm of village life—a perfect way to experience Iceland’s serene coastal beauty.

DAY 9: Vestmannaeyjar Archipelago

The volcanic Westman Islands are among Earth’s youngest landscapes, shaped by recent eruptions, dramatic cliffs, and thriving seabird colonies. On Heimaey, we see the impact of the 1973 Eldfelleruption, which buried part of the town in ash, and explore the Eldheimar Museum, where interactive exhibits bring this event to life.
