

ANTARCTICA - EXPEDITION ANTARCTICA: SOUTH GEORGIA & ANTARCTIC PENINSULA | HANSEATIC INSPIRATION

INTRODUCTION

This 14-day expedition offers a focused and immersive wildlife experience across South Georgia, the South Orkney Islands, and the Antarctic Peninsula, combining active exploration with expert interpretation. Guests can expect frequent Zodiac operations, guided hikes and shore landings that provide close-up encounters with vast penguin colonies, seabirds, seals, and, when conditions allow, whales feeding in polar waters. From South Georgia's iconic king penguin rookeries to the iceberg-studded coastlines of the Antarctic Peninsula, each day is shaped by opportunities for meaningful time ashore and on the water.

The route remains flexible, adapting to ice, weather and wildlife activity to maximize access to key sites. Potential visits include historic locations such as former exploration and research outposts, Grytviken and select scientific stations when permitted, offering insight into both modern polar science and the heroic age of exploration. Zodiac cruising among glaciers, ice floes, and dramatic ice formations further enhances the sense of discovery.

Onboard, the experience is enriched through recaps, daily briefings, and naturalist-led lectures that provide context on wildlife behavior, local ecosystems, and environmental conditions. Reference materials, observation tools, and comfortable viewing spaces support continual learning and wildlife monitoring between excursions. Balancing active field experiences with well-appointed onboard amenities, the voyage delivers an engaging and well-rounded introduction to Antarctic wildlife, nature, and exploration heritage.

DAY 1: Fly to Ushuaia & Embarkation

Today, you will board your charter flight to Ushuaia, where your adventure begins. Upon arrival at the airport, you will be met by a representative and transferred to the cruise ship for embarkation. Once on board, the Expedition Team and ship staff will welcome you and help you settle in, followed by a safety and orientation briefing and a welcome dinner. Your journey to Antarctica begins.

DAY 2: At Sea - Day 2 to 4

Today is a full day at sea as we continue toward South Georgia Island. Enjoy the ship's amenities and the ever-changing views of the Southern Ocean. Keep an eye out for seabirds and marine life along the way.

DAY 5: South Georgia - Day 5 & 6

Days of adventure and great experiences lie ahead of you, when rugged peaks on the horizon signal your approach to this unique animal paradise. South Georgia is often referred to as the "cold Serengeti". Hundreds of thousands of king penguins blanket the island's coastlines and mountain slopes. On numerous trips and landings with the Zodiacs, you will experience the animal world from a respectful distance. With a little luck, you will see elephant seals fighting over a harem or gentoo and king penguins in their natural habitat. Your experts, who have extensive experience in the Antarctic, will familiarise you with the flora and fauna. The pioneering days of polar research will come to life for you in Grytviken: in the former whaling station, you will visit the grave of Sir Ernest Shackleton and commemorate the heroic efforts with which he once saved his crew.

DAY 7: At Sea

Today is a day to relax and enjoy life on board as we sail toward Antarctica. Take in the vast scenery of the Southern Ocean as anticipation builds for the next stage of the journey. Keep watch for seabirds and passing marine life as we continue south.

DAY 8: South Shetland & Antarctic Peninsula - Day 8 to 12

The South Orkney Islands, a small group of islands with a surface area of around 620 km² (239 mi.²), are located in the Scotia Sea. A lonely, glaciated world with ice deserts - and more animal species than on the Galapagos Islands, as scientists have discovered. Who would guess there are around 1,200 animal species here? The South Orkney Islands are home to numerous varieties of penguin, whale and seal, as well as leopard seals. With luck, you will also see icebergs drifting off the rugged coast. In contrast, the Argentinian Orcadas research station - which has been staffed since 1904 - houses just a few people. Depending on the conditions and approval from the station, you will land in the Zodiacs to gain an impression of the isolated life of polar explorers in the area. The South Shetland Islands form a long chain in the ocean. The island group opens up exciting chapters of Antarctic exploration and provides expert insights into geology. Here, your small manoeuvrable ship can again prove its expedition capability when it sails into the flooded caldera of the extinct volcano that forms Deception Island. Flanked by rock faces up to 50 m (164 ft) in height, the black sand in front of you gives off steam as a testament to a past eruption - and you in the heart of the scenery. Elephant Island, where history surrounds you, is legendary: polar explorer Sir Ernest Shackleton and his crew spent months here after abandoning their ship in the ice. You, too, will be enchanted by the scenery. Jagged crags loom fiercely on the horizon and the evening sun casts a delicate pink glow over the snowfields. This expedition takes you on a flexible route towards adventure through the Weddell Sea. The ice cracks and crunches around the ship's reinforced bow, conveying just how challenging the hardships were that the pioneers of polar research had to endure. Where weather and ice conditions dictate the route, the experienced crew reacts flexibly and spontaneously to provide you with unforgettable expedition moments. The Weddell Sea is home to spectacular ice formations - from majestic tabular icebergs occupied by Adelie penguins to ice shelves as tall as white cliffs and dense carpets of pack ice. How far into this region can your expedition ship venture? The Antarctic Peninsula, part of the coldest continent on Earth, may seem inhospitable at first glance, but it is actually a paradise for countless animal species that have adapted perfectly. Enjoy unforgettable moments when, for example, you set foot on the Antarctic mainland. Snow-covered peaks, imposing icebergs and towering glaciers surround you. On Petermann Island, keep an eye out for gentoo and Adelie penguins and the blue-eyed cormorants that have their breeding colonies here.
